

2020 LESSON TUITION

Dear Families and Participants,

We have revised our lesson tuition and payment information for 2020. We do our best to make lessons as affordable and accessible as possible. The actual cost to Fieldstone Farm is $130 per hour of service; we are able to greatly subsidize the cost to you through the generous support of donors and grant support.

Please arrange a payment method before your first lesson as payment is due before services are provided. We suggest you authorize monthly payments from a credit card, which is quick and easy, or use the “click to pay” service through your monthly bill. All billing occurs on the first of the month including automatic renewal payments. You may also make payments through the mail or at Fieldstone in the payment box located in the mounting area.

If you need financial assistance and request a Ridership, please fill out an application and return it via email to kflint@fieldstonefarmtrc.com or fax to (440) 708-0029. Riderships are awarded annually, and must be reapplied each year.

Also, please remember that when you enroll your lesson time is guaranteed. Therefore, lesson tuition is charged at the monthly rate, on the first of the month, until you withdraw from the program or take a formal leave of absence. We require a three week notice of withdrawal, which gives us time to fill the spot.

Should you have any questions about payments or a Ridership, please contact Katy Flint, Outreach Specialist, at 440.708.0013 x145 or kflint@fieldstonefarmtrc.com.
